From (Name) H.M. HOOD ESQUIRE, I.C.S.,
(Designation) REGISTRAR OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES,
Madras.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
DEVELOPMENT Department.
FORT ST. GEORGE, MADRAS.

Sir,

Messrs. Ullal Mangesh Rau, Head Master of the Government Training School, Mangalore and P. Ramanada Rau, Lecturer in Chemistry, Government College, Mangalore have been elected among others as Directors of the Sanadana Co-operative Printing Works Ltd., Mangalore. As the services of these two persons as Directors were found indispensable to the society, the Deputy Registrar, Coimbatore requested me to obtain the necessary exemption in their cases under local ruling to Rule 12 of the Government Servants' Conduct Rules, as desired by the Board of Directors of the society.

2. The Director of Public Instruction, Madras, who was addressed in the matter states that M.R.Ry U. Mangesh Rao is the Secretary of the District Co-operative Council of Supervision, Mangalore, and Editor of the "Kannada Sahakari" and therefore feels doubtful whether he can take up additional duties without detriment to his official work. But he has no objection to these two persons serving on the Directorate of the society provided sanction of the Government is obtained under the local ruling.

3. I have the honour to state that under by-law 15 of the society the Directors are elected every year. The Deputy Registrar represents that the services of these gentlemen are necessary for a short time in order that the society may work satisfactorily; and as they have only to attend meetings held on holidays, their legitimate work will not be prejudiced in any way. Moreover no remuneration is paid to the Directors. I therefore request that Government may be pleased to exempt these two persons under the local ruling as a temporary measure.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Registrar.
